THE CIRCUS

Tight rope walkers, clowns, and acrobats—yes, but these alone do not comprise a circus. Without the management of the circus owners and without the painstaking work of the trainers, the performers would be unable to accomplish their purpose—that of entertainment.

We, the creators of The Key for January, 1938, consider the circus comparable to our school life. With the aid of Mr. Butterfield, Mr. Wolgast, and the faculty, most of us can truthfully say that we have accomplished an objective—that of spending an enjoyable and profitable time here at Franklin High School.

STAR PERFORMERS

In Franklin High we place our trust,
The source of our life's aim:
We crown with honors fair and just
Our Alma Mater's name.
Let steady foresight point the way
And care our actions lead:
Our deeds and not our words will lay
Foundations of our creed.

With loyalty to Franklin High,
With harmony in thought,
We shall with single purpose strive
For strength in honors sought.
Let hope acknowledge no defeat,
And friendship be our rule;
Let time with measured march repeat
The spirit of our school.

Michael Golben, June '31

SPEECH CORRECTION

Grace Borwn

Although "the show must go on," we hold the curtain a moment to honor Miss Lottie Finn, an exchange teacher from Honolulu, who is taking the place of Miss Lillian Crafts of the Mathematics Department.

We trust that Miss Finn will have many happy recollections of us when she returns to her school in Honolulu next fall.

MISS LOTTIE FINN

*Representing
Mrs. Stanton

MISS PAULINE GEBALLE

Again we "stop the show" to pay tribute to Miss Pauline Geballe, who is an exchange teacher from Portland, Oregon. Miss Geballe has exchanged positions with Mr. Stanton West of the Science Department.

We hope that Miss Geballe will also have pleasant memories of Benjamin Franklin High School to take with her to Portland next September.

★ PERFORMERS

★ RINGMASTERS

MISS FLORENCE R. METZ

MR. ROBERT TORRENS

We, the performers of the circus of January, 1938, take this opportunity to acknowledge the patient guidance of our competent ringmasters, Miss Florence Metz and Mr. Robert Torrens.

To us, Miss Metz has been a reliable source of advice and wisdom. Those of us who have had the privilege of working with her feel that we have emerged with a richer and fuller personality as a result of this contact.

With his genial good wit Mr. Torrens has encouraged us in all our class undertakings. And we have enjoyed ourselves to a greater degree because of his help, his enthusiasm, and his vitality.

Now that we have successfully banded together under the leadership of these masters it is our hope to remain intact for class meetings in the years to come.

It is with reluctance that we leave our class advisers and the school that has fostered us. Such things, however, are inevitable.

★ MANAGERS

The performers of January, 1938, were organized in the 12B term. At that time a council was formed with two members from each homeroom. In the 12A term the managers elected Frank De Carlo president. His assistants are Henry Brauner, vice-president; Betty Linder, secretary; Walter Blank, treasurer; Catheryn Lesyk and Clifford Andrews, co-social chairmen; and Richard Schroeder, publicity chairman. It is a privilege to be a member of the Circus of January, 1938, under the excellent management of these capable officers.

EXCLUSIVE KNEWS

By HALTER BINSHELL

Hello, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin and all the dopes (Excuse me, I meant boats) at sea, let's go to press . . .

Flash . . . September 8, the public schools opened wide their doors and 2800 ended the pleasant vacation to return to the dreary grind. It is rumored that some students remarked that it was good to have a firm desk under their feet once again.

Flash . . . October 11, the students had a brief respite. We should have more Columbus.

Flash . . . Flash . . . October 26, many seniors took superficial baths when bobbing for apples at their Hallowe'en Party.

Flashes and Dashes . . . Teachers should have more conventions. We certainly enjoyed October 28 and 29.

Flash . . . It is constantly whispered that Milton and Margie are that way about each other.

Flash . . . November 25 and 26 were reserved for Thanksgiving. Don't you think the Pilgrims deserve some thanks? Franklin should be thankful anyway because Franklin beat Irondequoit with the score of 35 to 23.

Flash . . . Although Carolyn and Leo deny any interest in each other, they are constantly seen about the campus together.

Question Mark . . . Why were Eleanor, Catherine, and Florence saying, "Fritters and peanuts" in their dreams after the week of November 29.

Dots and dashes and lots of flashes . . . December 3, the senior class presented The First Year by Craven. Don't get too serious, Joan . . . "The stage is more beholden to love than to life."

Jingle Bells . . . December 23 meant the beginning of the Christmas Holidays . . .

Dots and dashes . . . January 21 . . . Senior Day and for once we can stay out of school without explaining to Miss Coulton.

Groans, moans, and sighs and wails . . . January 24 . . . beginning of examinations!

Flash . . . February 1—Caps and Gowns. I remain your Franklin correspondent, Halter Binsshell.

MINUS QUANTITIES

WANTED . . . Someone to wipe away the seniors' tears after examinations. Good celery. Write Box 950 for interview.

WANTED . . . A good position for resting. Wire Mr. U. R. Lazy, 267 North Restview Terrace at Seemore Street.

PERSONAL . . . This is to state that I am not responsible for any wrong answers in examinations. Signed M. T. Encyclopedia.

FOR SALE . . . A 1901 Ford model car, guaranteed not to fall apart the first mile. Why walk a mile?

HINTS TO THE FORLORN

MOTHERS! Are you worried about your darling offspring because he does not devour his breakfast? Breeze over to your neighborhood store and purchase a package of VEATIES, the BREAKFAST of CHUMPIONS.

If your throat is sore and foggy, smoke ZEBRAS. They're fried.

Do your clothes tell tales out of school? Soak them in 202. Our own special concoction is guaranteed to remove spots, stains, and skin.

Do you have falling hair, falling arches, or falling bridges? Use ZILCHES' restorative—good for man or beast.

Ladies, do your hands remind HIM of a cheese grater? Use JERKING'S LOTION and your romance will have smooth sailing.

A DAY AT THE CIRCUS, AND A

Nothing was so rare as a day in June or a 1913 "Liberty Head" nickel. But what was rarer—Matt Hem'atics was taking his girl friend, Phyllis Ophy, to the circus. The morning itself was quite cool, but what did Matt care—he had his love to keep him warm.

Without wasting any time our hero rushed to the garage to hitch old Dobbin to the shay. Having completed this in less time than it takes a lamb to shake its foot, he went aboard having been wished a "Bon Voyage" by his great-grandfather. He turned the key, stepped on the starter, shifted gears, and away he flew through the fields of clover.

On his way to Dover, Matt hummed a little song. If you ever want to try it, and you probably won't, attempt it to the tune of "On the Street to Mandalay." (Don't say we didn't warn you.) Here are the words as Matt sang them.

Oh, the merry-go-round broke down,
But you don't see me clown;
Instead a good boy I be,
In the shade of the old apple tree.

We told you it was terrible! Why didn't you listen to us? (All this modern stuff has a pungent odor.)

Well, let's get on with the story.

We now find our hero ringing the doorbell at Phyllis Ophy's house. The time was exactly 10:49-5/7 A. M. Eastern Standard Time. At 10:49-6/7, Phyllis was at the door. Hurrah! One point for this category of humans; they are usually known to be slow. Maybe there was romance in the air and they were young. Anyway they jumped into the bus and were whisked away.

In order to Git-in the circus grounds our friends had to cross a Marsh-ak. Once inside, Matt and Phyllis went first of all to see the freaks; many resembled our classmates. (No offense, seniors, we had to get a laugh somewhere.) On the tour of inspection they saw Leo, the lion; Alex, the seal; Teddy, the bear; Donald, the duck; Henry, the flit (Oops that slipped).

KOO-KING KOLUMN

By I. M. HONGRY

Hash—"Sweet Mystery of Life"

1 lb. leftover meat 5 lbs. bread crumbs
2 lbs. salt 3 lbs. black pepper

10 onions 1 cake soap
13 eggs 1 box scouring powder
7 c. shortening 1 doctor

Heat the meat over a 4 1/2 inch flame. Beat eggs until they peek. Then add eggs, shortening, bread crumbs, salt, onions, and pepper to meat. Increase flame to 7 1/32 inches. If

A BIT OF ROMANCE, LITTLE FUN

Towards noon, all spectators began to feel the pangs of hunger, so Phyllis took Herman and went to the refreshment tent. They looked at De Meno and decided to navigate some roast pork down their alimentary canal. Hold on, something was wrong! The food wasn't Reddy yet. The pig was getting Brauner and Brauner, but it still wasn't Braun enough. The coffee was only Luke warm. Since everybody had waited quite a long time for dinner, many people became Stark mad and began to chew their fingernails in the same manner that we will during our examinations. (Gruesome thought, uh?). Some resorted to biting the ears of others, and cries of "Ouch! Meyer!" filled the air.

Finally, after what seemed ages, the cook shouted, "The Bor-is-off the Grill-o. Everything is Reddy. Trott over for it."

There was a great rush, but our hero managed to find seats for Phyllis and himself. A Cas-ale was opened and served to the people but no Liquory. As compensation for the delay, ice cream Cohens were distributed to Alt the people and everybody left Glick-en-ing them.

As it began to get Cool-igan Matt and Phyllis climbed into De Carlo and sped away for home. After such a day of enjoyment, the two were naturally drawn together and each thought the other the eighth wonder of the world.

At Phyllis' door Matt spoke, "Phyllis, dear, there is-a-dore between us now. Will you marry me and let me live with you?"

To this Phyllis answered, "Matt, I will but not tonight. Here is a Rose to show my affection for you."

And thus separated our lovers. As each climbed into his Bertha that night, their one thought was "Love one another."

Will the hero marry the heroine or will a villain enter to spoil this beautiful affair? Don't fail to miss the next installment of this breezy story in the next edition of the BINGLING BROTHERS' BUGLE.

your gas range does not provide this flame, buy a blow-torch. Cook this concoction until a black smoke issues from the kettle; remove it immediately from the range.

Neither the doctor nor the soap nor scouring powder are ingredients of this delectable hash. You will, however, find a doctor indispensable for prescribing something for an upset stomach after you have partaken of this delicate morsel.

You will find the soap and scouring powder convenient for cleaning away the mess. If, perchance, the new bottom of the kettle refuses to come off, throw out the kettle and the recipe too.

A MAGNIFICENT, STUPENDOUS, COLOSSAL RARITY

Ladi-ee-s and Gents! Step right this way, Folks, to witness the most colossal, the most stupendous freak that ever lived in these United States of America and all points east, west, north, and south. His appellation is Eddy Kett. Yes, he is a very remarkable fellow—

Eddy is a student of the senior high school. He performs the most unusual and most extraordinary feats. Folks, right here at your left you can purchase for the small sum of ten cents, one-tenth of a dollar, your ticket which will entitle you to behold and admire this eighth wonder of the world. This superhuman removes his hat upon entering school, hands in his homework every day completely and neatly done, obeys all the laws, by-laws, and in-laws of the constitution of his Alma Mater. He listens attentively to all that takes place in the assembly and forgets to clap whenever the hall is darkened. Never does he hoot with glee when a fellow classmate makes an error.

Just inside this door this amazing curiosity awaits your inspection. Remember, opportunity knocks but once; therefore, pay the nominal sum of ten little pennies and learn more of this miracle boy.

ACCURACY

A galoot was trying to find his way with a compass. After walking awhile, he bumped into a tree. Rubbing his head, he looked up from his compass. Puzzled, he sat down and said, "If I walk around the tree, I'll lose my way again. My kingdom for an ax!"

WHAT WILL I TELL MY POP OR WHY I WASN'T GRADUATED

I'll try to explain to my friends,
The reason I failed to pass;
I know what to tell my friends,
But what will I tell my pop?

It's easy to say to strangers
That I monkeyed down the start;
It's easy to lie to strangers,
But what will I tell my pop?
